

Cove in Bloom 2010

Jim Henderson and Michele McPartlin accept the It's Your Neighbourhood! Certificate from Corrie McHord, Chair of Keep Scotland Beautiful, on behalf of Cove in Bloom. Cove was awarded a grade of "Thriving" at Beautiful Scotland's Annual Seminar in Stirling.

This year Aberdeen City Council again kindly supplied the Cove in Bloom team with daffodil bulbs and crocus corms. Thousands of daffodils were planted to complete the show along the back of the Community Garden and along the bank in the open space at the top of Stoneyhill Terrace, Old Cove, for your enjoyment. Crocuses were planted to help complete the run along the bank at the Earnsheugh Road/Langdykes Road junction. Wallflowers have been donated by Mr David Penny of Cove Nurseries and will be planted to enhance the Old Cove area.

To become part of the Cove in Bloom team please contact Jim on 894299 or Michele on 890329.
